4.5

for information received during meetings.

4.1

UCAS listens to/acts on feedback raised.

3.8

ability to influence the enhancements that UCAS is making to improve admissions services.

ADDITIONAL FEEDBACK INCLUDED:

- > 'I have enjoyed being part of an advisory group, the meetings have been useful, and online working has run smoothly – mainly down to UCAS staff'.
- > 'Meetings are informative and insightful. Encouraging to feel that points made at the meeting are often acted upon by useful and I especially enjoyed being a member of sub-groups this year regarding post qualification admissions'.
- > 'The Group is always informative and represents true consultation and engagement, seeing the changes from one meeting to the next based on feedback is very reassuring'.
- > 'The Group is well-run and informative, with a collegiate atmosphere. Agendas are interesting and relevant'.
- > 'The proposed restructuring of Advisory and Standing Groups will enhance the quality of information for each of the four nations and will make discussions more relevant for members of the Groups'.

AREAS FOR IMPROVEMENT:

- > Explore ways for groups to communicate between meetings.
- > Ensure sessions are more interactive and discussion based and not just presentations.
- > Ensure open and transparent discussions with all group members.
