SPECIFICATIONS

UCAS

THANK YOU

Thank you for choosing to promote your organisation through UCAS.

To support the creation of your employer profile, please review the following specifications and follow the guidelines before submitting your content.

The UCAS Creative Acceptance Policy (CAP) is designed to ensure consistently high standards of advertising across all UCAS properties and platforms, and as such, all content (including paid advertising) is subject to approval by UCAS.

Additionally, all creatives must comply with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements including (but not limited to the following) to DMA Codes, ASA Guidelines, FCA regulations and Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations 2008.

We will not accept promotions:

- ▶ in relation to, or which reference, products or services which may not be in the best interests of students.
- ▶ from companies, businesses or organisations which are not able to demonstrate that they are established and reputable concerns and suitable to be associated with UCAS.
- ▶ which in any way could be misleading to students, or which make any representations which cannot be substantiated to our satisfaction.

LONG DESCRIPTION

Bold ambitions

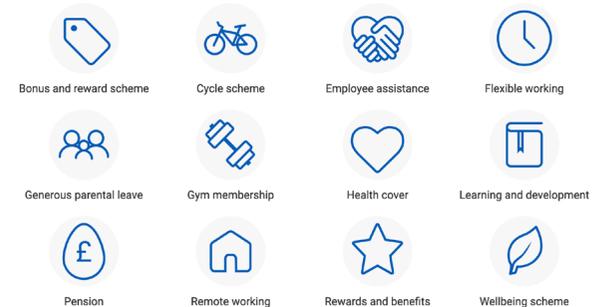

Our goal is to make power safer, cleaner and more sustainable, even through challenging times

We have bold ambitions to meet the changing needs of our world, our people and our customers, as we’re one of the few global companies best-positioned to shape the future of power and reduce its carbon impact. Yet 2020 and the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic has brought unprecedented medium-term change to the whole commercial aviation industry. As a result, we’re having to resize our Civil Aerospace business to adapt. However our Defence and Power Systems businesses remain broadly unaffected. As part of our restructuring, we have explored all mitigation opportunities including transferring engineers from our Civil Aerospace business to our Defence business to secure the right skills and talent before recruiting externally. Our Submarines business plays a vital role in providing power for the Royal Navy’s nuclear submarines and due to an increase in demand we have transferred over 120 employees into this business. However due to the highly specialised nature of the roles, we were unable to meet all our requirements internally and have launched an external recruitment campaign to fill the final roles available. All roles advertised here externally have been through this process. Be part of our journey; challenge the status quo; help us simplify how we work and free us to focus on the things that matter, so that together we can co-create the future of sustainable power. Search & apply for our Defence Engineering and Submarines roles now via the button below.

ADDITIONAL EXISTING/FORMER STAFF TESTIMONIALS

Testimonials

Fun and very interesting

Great place to work and become specialist in a field of interest. Loads of people willing to help out. Competitive to keep you achieving. Highly recommend company as previous employee.

Materials Process Engineer (Former Employee)
Bristol Apr 2021

Brilliant place to work employees well looked after

A progressive modern blue chip company in which to work. The employees are continuously developed and challenged and the salary is the best in the city of Derby with other comparable roles. Would definitely recommend it.

Materials Process Engineer (Former Employee)
Birmingham Mar 2021

Great employer

Rolls-Royce is one the best companies I've worked for. Treated properly and looked after. I only left because of being a sun contractor and having to move on but great experience. Would go back if chance was there.
