

UCAS

New speakers announced - UCAS Adviser Conference

In February 2025 The Careers and Enterprise Company and The Gatsby Foundation will join forces to present the latest updates to the Gatsby Benchmark framework, and what it means for your careers education practice. Tickets are selling fast for our Birmingham event – don't miss out.

Check out the full line-up

Get ready to meet top employers at UCAS Discovery 2025

New for 2025: Students can now connect face-to-face with employers in our brand-new employer pods! Launching at the Manchester event this March, a diverse line-up of employers will be ready to answer questions and showcase the careers of tomorrow.

Find your local event

Next step to student success with CV builder

Supporting student work readiness? The new CV Builder is live for advisers to test drive, making it easy for your students to craft a professional CV that highlights skills, experience, and achievements. Whether they're applying for work experience, internships, or apprenticeships, it will guide them through step-by-step to create a polished CV.

Find out more >

How to support apprenticeship applications

National Apprenticeship Week is just around the corner so now is a key time for employers to launch application vacancies. This month, Careers Adviser Caroline Green shares her top tips for supporting students making an application.

Read more

Supporting last-minute applications

Join us ahead of the January equal consideration application deadline at 15:45 on 14 January for top tips to support your students, and the chance to ask the experts questions, live.

Book your place

Top 3 resources to support student research this month

1. City Guides: Discover what it's like to study in that location.
2. Unibuddy: Chat to students on the courses they are interested in.
3. Subject tasters: Find out what it's really like to study that subject.

Contact us About us